WV Psychological Association Information

The West Virginia Psychological Association is holding its Spring Conference on April 21, 2023 from 8:00am-5:00pm at CAMC-Memorial. It is both an in-person and virtual event. The conference this year has a multidisciplinary focus to address burnout and promotion of wellness across disciplines. They are inviting all nurses/nurse practitioners, social workers, pharmacists, physicians, and psychologists to attend the CE/CME event. This event has incredible speakers to promote new literature and ideas about this topic from experts in the field. Please note that in-person attendance for students is now only $15 to cover the cost for lunch. Virtual student attendance is now FREE.
