RE: Primary Source Verification of Education

To Whom it May Concern:

Please know that the West Virginia Board of Examiners of Psychologists conducts primary source verification of the highest level of education in psychology or school psychology for all applicants prior to issuing a license. For those who have not been licensed in another state the internship of candidates is also primary sourced either by transcript or by letter. This has been in effect since 1970 when the Board was initiated.

Please contact me using the information above if additional information is needed.

Sincerely,

Kathleen Lynch
